JODY BRATTON

Jody,

I wish I could have gotten to know you better this year than I did but I'm glad that we did get to know each other. I hope you are sucessful in whatever you attempt and good luck in the future. Have a very nice summer and I hope I will see you at the beach.

Love always,
Kevin
Sherrill

Jody
I wish I could have gotten to know you better this year in Gear but you were the summer is yet to come and I hope to see you sometime, maybe You'll invite me to one of your Parties and I won't have to work Best of Luck keep in touch
Love always
Joe

Jody,

Well, where should I start. Since we were pissed at each other last night, I'll start by saying I'm sorry for getting mad. I had fun those two weekends and would do it again anytime. We've had our disagreements and good times but I still love you. You're a great person and a great friend.

P.S. Look at that "STUD" shooting on page 97.

Love ya,
Chip

Jody. (David)
I didn't mean to you around calling you
Chip really look like David, but I am so glad that you're
I hope we stay in Love Yourself

Jody,
I'm going to miss you next year. Remember the night when your parents went out of town. Get off on the Sangria. I'll never ever forget all of the good-times we had at some of the great parties (Aaron's for instance) Let me know when you get rid of my friend "kit." I couldn't get use to shit and throw-up. I had a great time at the beach, although your sisters, Nan, Lisa, & Kim were down there. Next year when you head-toward CPCC have fun & never quit partying. Most of all, save me a place down there for the next year. Don't be too mean to Chip and good luck with Chris Newsome, Please don't forget about me & remember what you promised me. If you forget, just ask and I'll be sure to remind you. Good luck in everything you do always.

Love always,
Teresa

P.S. The matmaids will never be the same.

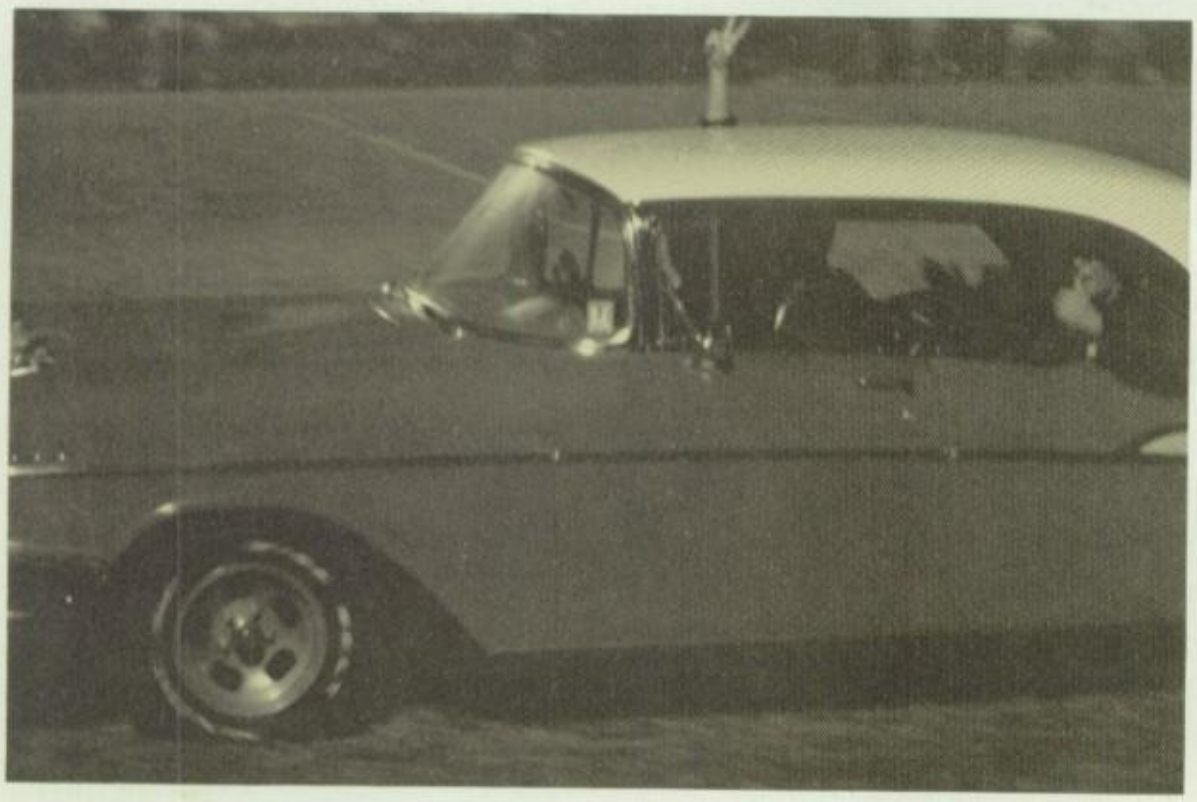
So many things were the same as in years past, yet the faces and expressions were different. These faces hold the memories of the year; the laughter and the tears.

When we think of these past school years, there are many good and bad memories. Even though some goals and destinies were never reached, the memories are priceless. The unique part of it is that it happened to us . . . . .

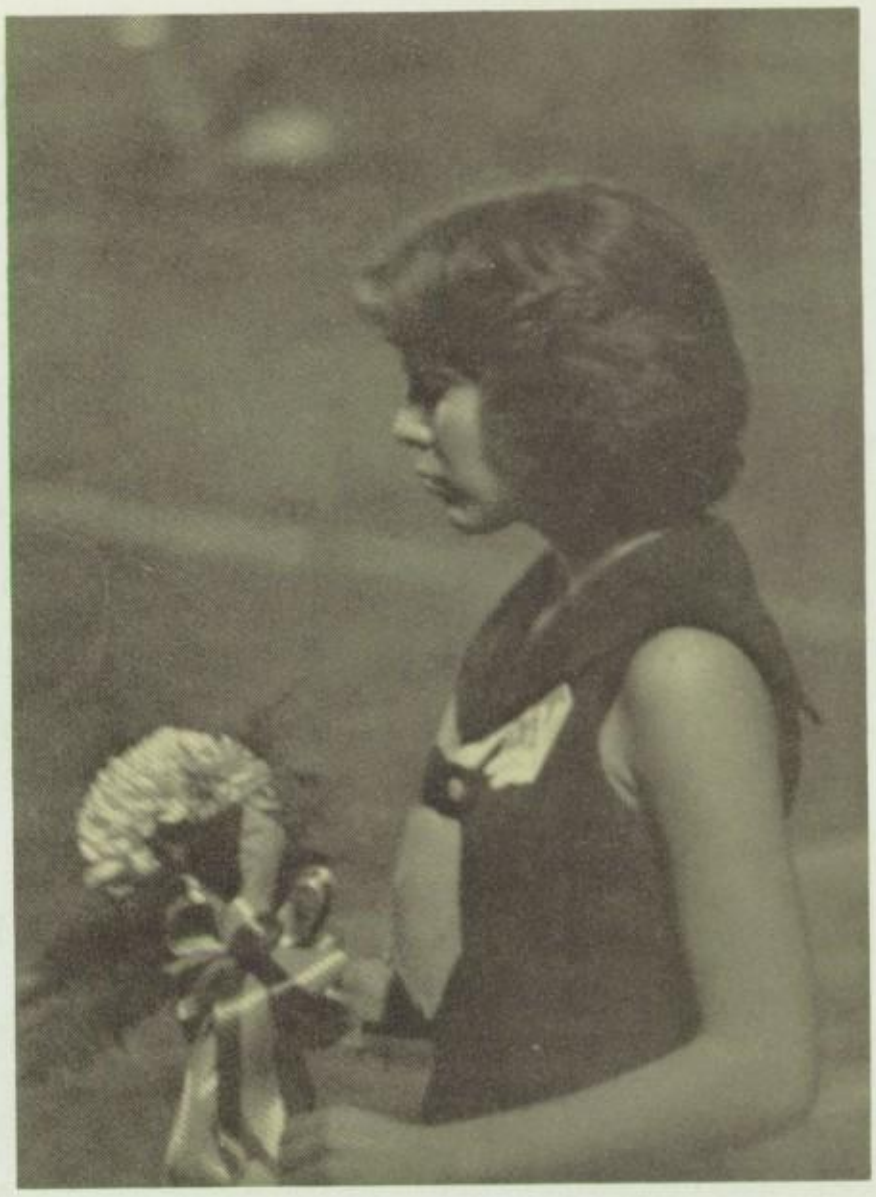


Homecoming

Farmer Day

Greaser Day!

Graduation . . . . . .beach



2:45, Wasting time after school

Forget about the days

when it's been cloudy,

but don't forget your hours in the sun . . .

Forget about the times

you've been defeated,

but don't forget the victories you've won.

Forget about mistakes

that you can't change now,

but don't forget the lessons that you've learned . . .

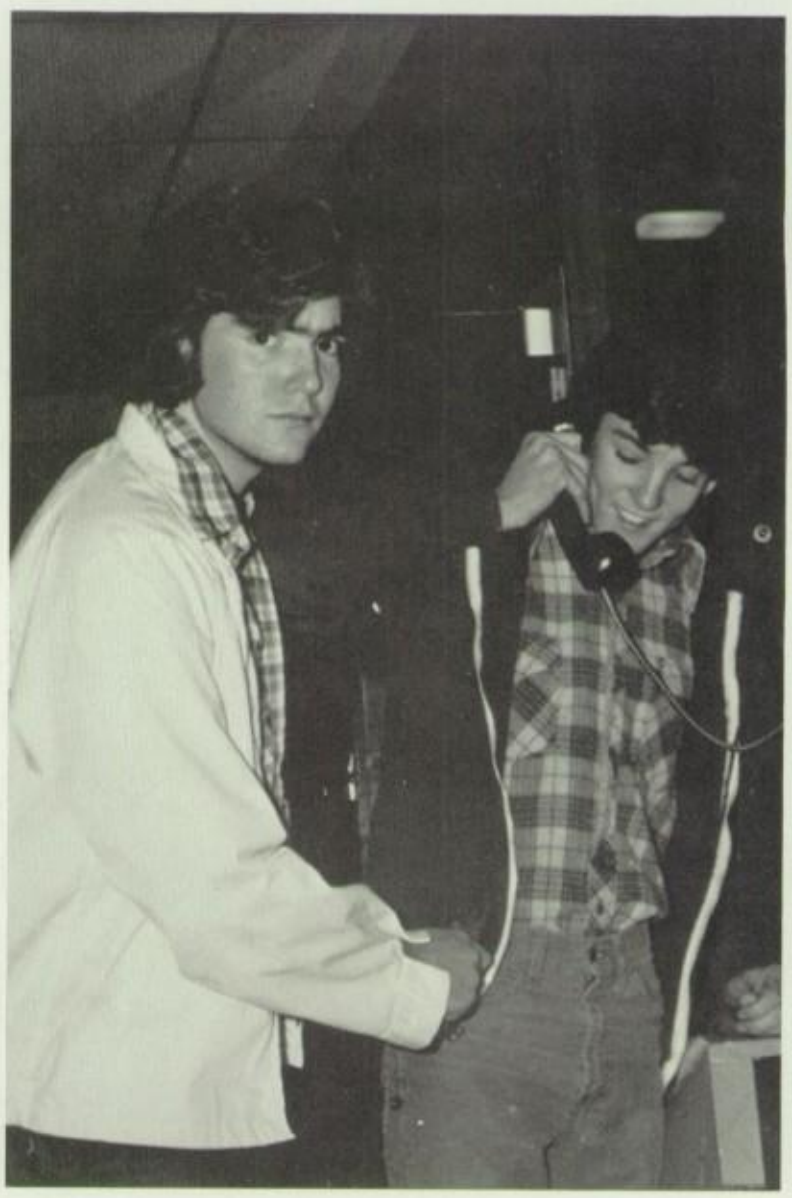
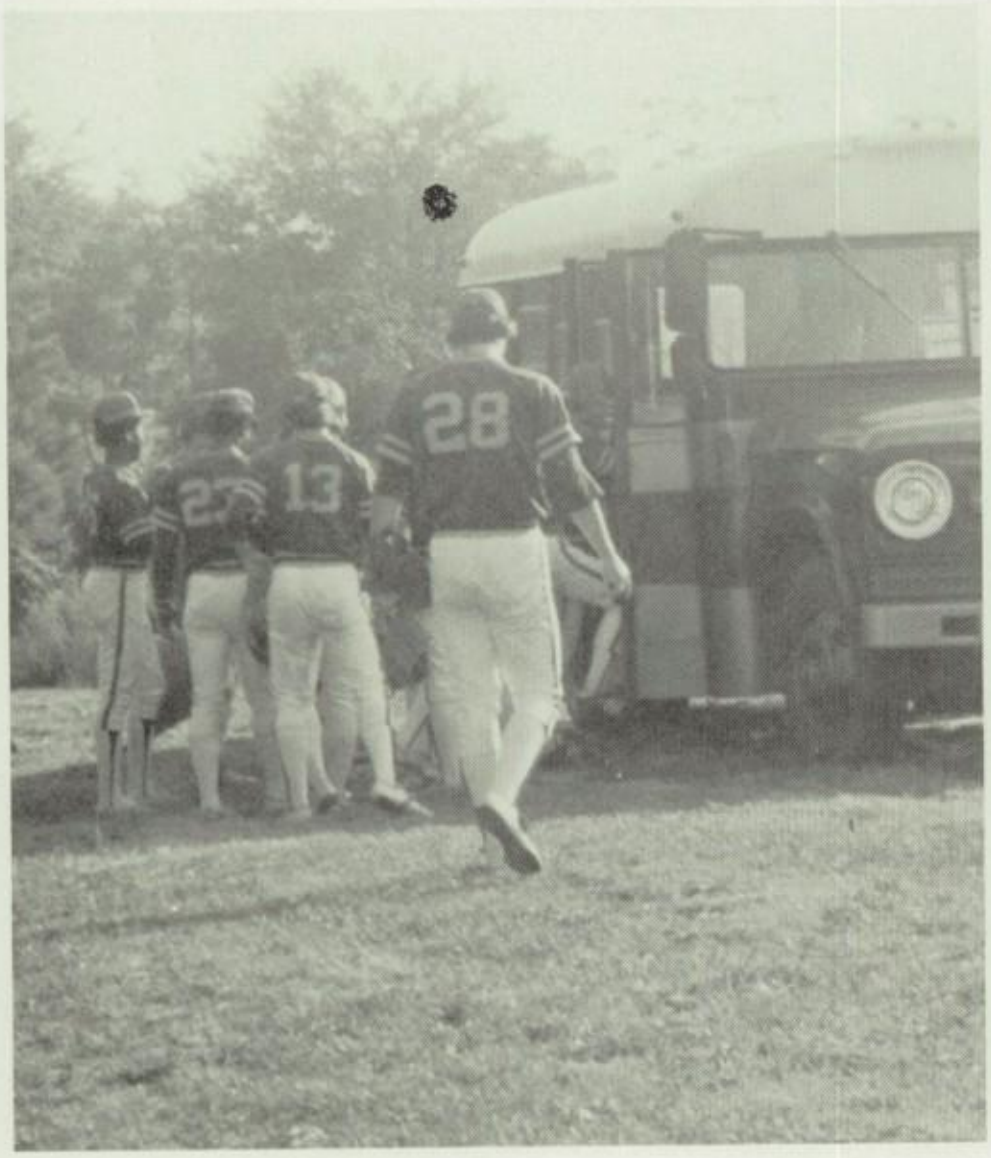
Forget about misfortunes

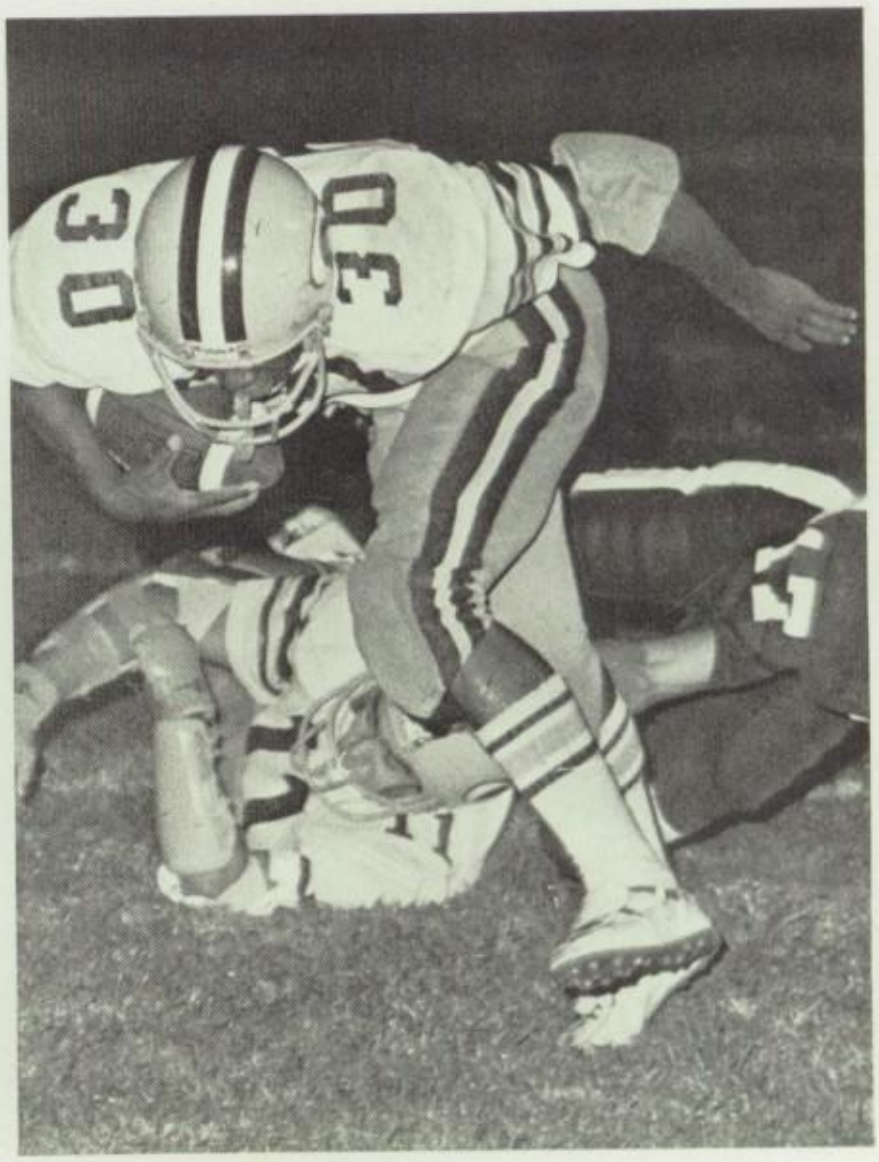
you've encountered,



but don't forget the times

your luck has turned.





Forget about the days

when you've been lonely,

but don't forget the friendly smile you've seen . . .

Forget about the plans that didn't seem to work out right, but don't forget to always have a dream.

As we, the students, look back at the past four years at Central, our thoughts turn to one who has helped us mature into young men and women. He has been there to share our disappointments and victories, always pushing us forward. His understanding guidance shall always be remembered by those who depended upon it. He does a great job as assistant principal and with admiration and respect, we dedicate the 1979 Centarune to you, Mr. Earl Mason.

As the half-time of the Central-Sun Valley game came within minutes, thirty four girls, representing the varsity football players, readied themselves to parade down to the field to participate in the crowning of the 1978-79 Homecoming Queen. After centering themselves on the field, it was announced that Tanya Allen had been elected as the Homecoming Queen for 1978-79. As the Viking Band continued with the rendition of "The 50's" the court filed off the field.

Central Cabarrus Marching Vikings

The Band Played On . . .

The Central Cabarrus band program, under the direction of Mr. Bob Markle, gave students a chance to further their musical experience.

Besides adding to the enthusiasm of pep rallies, the band entertained sports events at and away from school. In addition to their work during football games, the band also played at home basketball games.

The drum major for this year's Marching Viking Band was Wayne Kissiah. Along with Rifle girl co-captains, Johnna Morrison and Kim Walker, Flag girl co-captains, Ashlyn Lee and Patti Blankenship, the band worked together to perform the halftime shows for the football games and win first place in the Kannapolis Parade.

Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

Led into action this year by captain LaDonna Lentz and co-captain Karen Honeycutt, the Viking cheerleading squad was composed of nine girls.

The girls worked practicing cheers, selling spirit towels, providing special treats for the athletes, decorating the team locker room, and planning the pep rallies. With such efforts, they kept the enthusiasm high, and at the same time, kept students interested in the football games.

Under the supervision of Miss Beverly Burnette, the squad designed and performed many new cheers and formations to increase spectator participation during the Viking games.

Cheerleaders Fire Up Spirit

Cheerleading is not always smiles and laughter, there is a lot of hard work besides what shows at pep rallies and the games, work that no one ever sees or hears about.

The Squad, under the supervision of Miss Burnette and Captain Angie Stegall, is composed of nine girls and four boys. It is one of the first coed squads in this region.

It seems as if a cheerleader's work is never done. Yet the essential ingredient in having a successful pep rally or game is believing in our school spirit, in our own ability, and in one another.

Upper Left: Miss Burnette is caught relaxing during her sixth period planning period. She is the sponsor for both Varsity Cheerleading squads.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders led the spectators in cheering at the football games and basketball games. Their hard work and dedication proved worthwhile to the spirit of the games.

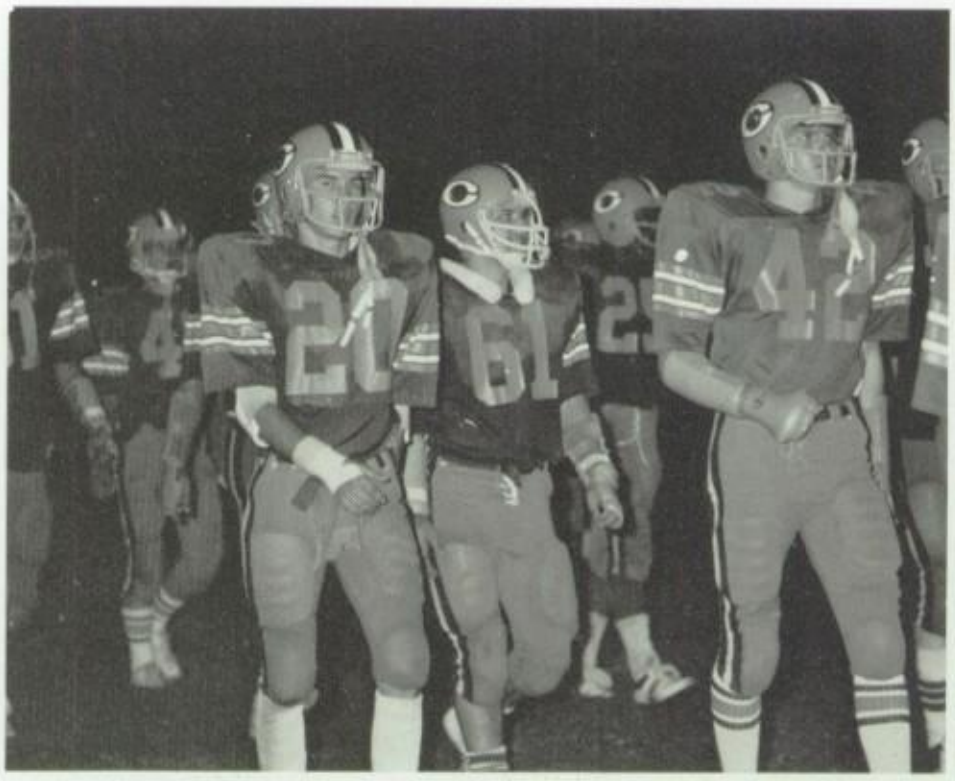
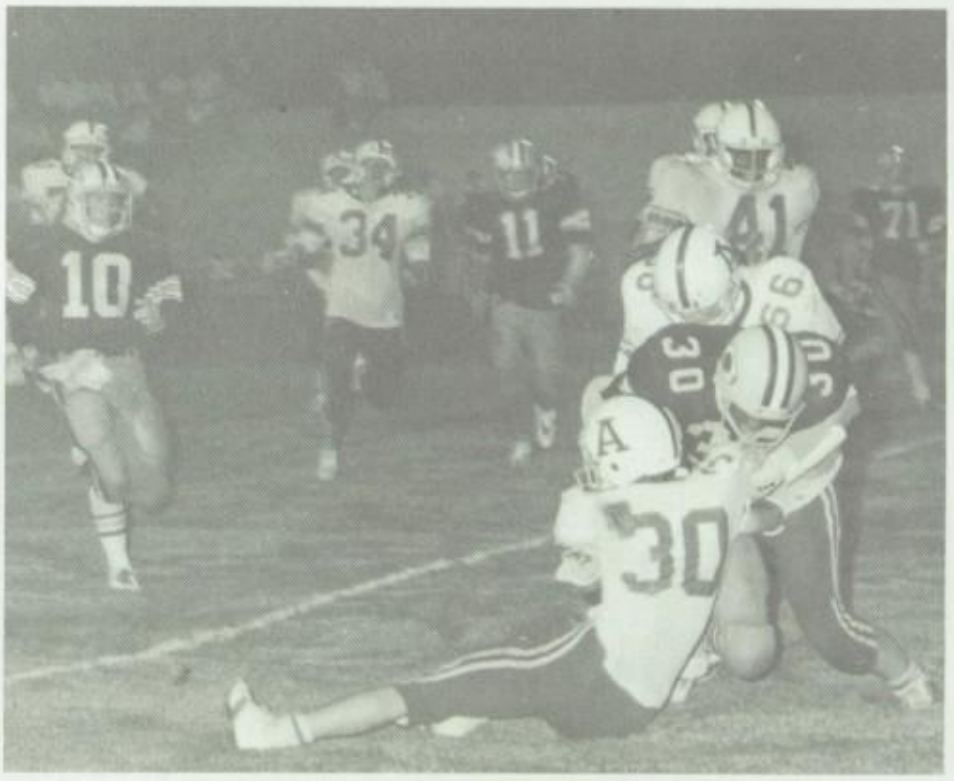
Now this is the law of the jungle,
As old and true as the sky;
And the wolf that shall keep it may prosper,
But the wolf that shall break it must die.

As the vine that girdles the tree trunk,
The law runneth forward and back;
And the strength of the pack is the wolf,
And the strength of the wolf is the pack.

And this is the law of the Vikings,
As true as the flight of the ball;
And the player who keeps it may prosper,
And the player who breaks it must fall.

As the ball and the parts it is made of,
Are bound and made fast by the seams;
The strength of the team is the player,
And the strength of the player is the team.





With a new coach and reports of a strong football team, Viking students felt assured that they would have a winning season.

The quality of the team was exhibited early as the Vikings blanketed the Mt. Pleasant Tigers; 16-0. The Vikings realized that the games remaining in the season would be a greater test of the ability of the squad.

The grime, sweat, the pulled and aching muscles were soon left behind as the Varsity Football Team closed their season with eight victories and two losses.

That's the Way the Ball Bounces

Even though the 1978-79 season ended with a disappointing record, the Vikings looked upon the year as one of seasoning for the returning members of the team.

Throughout the season Coach Barringer placed back-up players into the game at critical times and they responded by doing an excellent job.

With six returning players, the Boys' Basketball Team ended the season with a spirit of optimism and a great attitude for the future seasons.

Glory: Alone and Together

Under the coaching of Miss Georgia Roberson, the Lady Vikings proved an exciting and victorious season.

The year seemed to be one in which the morale of the players determined the outcome of each game. As the year progressed the team showed signs of improvement and learned the value of cooperation and teamwork. Those who graduated will carry this knowledge with them and those returning will help make next year's team more successful.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to a fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower in the sky.

Sophomore Class Officers

President, Kent Sides; Vice President, Jack Guffey; Secretary, Tonya Ford; Treasurer, Jeff Hancock.

Sophomores are now realizing the true meaning of high school life. Each year brings about new friends, experiences, and responsibilities. The outcome of these experiences contribute to our maturity and a stronger sense of unity.

Knowing what the past two years have brought, we can go on and face the next two with a bold Viking pride . . . . . .

Junior Class Officers

President, Steve Ledford; Vice President, Dennis Joyner; Secretary, Anne Almond; Treasurer, David Heaton.

Most juniors experience a familiar feeling which is, "We've almost made it."

Sometimes, we failed to realize what was ahead: the pains, the joys, the losses, the victories.

Finally, as juniors, we began to realize the privileges of being seniors. We had to accept serious responsibilities and make many important decisions.

Everything was taken in stride and eventually the memories were folded and stored in scrapbooks to be relived and cherished in future years.

And so with that, our junior year ends . . .

Under the leadership of President Tony Thompson, this year's Senior Class, was by far the closest knit group that has ever graduated from Central. The Class of '79 has really lived up to "VICTORY, that's the Senior battle cry!"

The memories that we have from our four years at Central will never be forgotten:

New principal and teachers, senior pictures, senior rings, pep rallies, CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN, Homecoming (The Nifty Fifties), spirit rags, Greaser Day, homework, friends, Senior Court, "Come Sail Away," Spanish Fiesta, lockers, Farmer Day, Green and Gold Day, letter jackets, CC Marching Vikings, SAT, cramming for exams, ROTC, Mardi Gras, parking stickers, lunch lines, "Saturday Night Live," spirit bell, 2:45 . . .

As the year ended, Seniors had mixed emotions about leaving Central. The thought of growing up and moving on brought tears to many eyes, but the thought of brighter days to come overcame the sorrow.

Cherish yesterday, live today, and dream of tomorrow . . .

YOUTH, TEXTILES, EDUCATION — PARTNERS IN PROGRESS

These young men — all Cannon employees — did more than earn a degree at North Carolina Vocational Textile School in June, 1978.

They attended classes four and one-half hours per day for two years, spent up to two hours each day in round trips to Belmont, worked their full-time jobs at Cannon, and met their family responsibilities. One of the graduates made straight A's.

These graduates are representative of the many people at Cannon who seek more knowledge and better opportunities through education and self-improvement. Cannon people and the company believe in the value of education. There are many productive relationships with public schools, technical institutes, colleges and universities.

Cannon recently began a new scholarship program to help employees and/or their children attend college, and to encourage more high school graduates to study for careers in textiles. The scholarships, each with a value of $6,000, offer to the qualified applicant an open door to a college degree in textiles, textile design, computer science, chemistry, business administration, accounting, mathematics and engineering.

The American textile industry is modern, computerized, electronic, climate-controlled, scientific and artistic. It requires far more education, training and skills than ever before. There are many opportunities for qualified people. Cannon Mills is, of course, an Equal Opportunity Employer.

We the Centarune Staff produced this annual hoping that you, the student body and faculty enjoy and treasure the past memories of the school year, 1978-79.

May the graduating class cherish this book and the memories that it reflects, just visiting the past but living in the present and striving for the future.

I especially want to thank Nancy Hinson, Associate Editor, Lanny, Susan, Keith, and Doug, our photographers, and those members of the Central Cabarrus student body who knew and understood our problems and setbacks.

For those of you who do not appreciate our work or feel that the Centarune could be better, I challenge you, students and teachers alike, to accept the responsibility of making the 1979-80 Centarune the best ever by cooperating with or being a member of the staff.

The 1979 Centarune is not just a collection of pictures and words, but an account of events and people which make Central what it is. This is your book and it will be meaningful to you as long as you consider yourself a true Viking.

Jody,
Our sophmore year was a good thing for me. You moved to Central, I got to know you very well. You're a crazy and great friend. I couldn't have made it thru Mayor Marks' Hometa. Class without you. You are the one who got my morning started after Lambeth's (hussy) Class. I don't know how to express my feelings for you into words. So, I will sign out with this: "Take Care & Good with...

1) anyone AND 2) anything

(especially "Big Daddy")

Love always,
Vicki

Jody,

Wow, you'll be gone, and won't remember the great times we had in leadership. I sure am glad that we are through with that scrapbook! I going to fill your spot as a senior! Lots of luck, love, and success. Love ya like a sister.

Love
Tina

Its been great knowing you the past 4 yrs. You are a nut.
You are so little. So what don't you remember to grow! You're really a nice person + I'll always remember your smallness!

Love ya,
